INTRODUCTION

INTRODUCTION TO THE NRF

The National Research Foundation Act as amended, Act 19 of 2018, establishes the National Research Foundation ("NRF") as the juristic legal entity that will contract with the awarded bidder. Please visit the NRF website (https://www.nrf.ac.za) for more information.

BACKGROUND TO SAIAB

The South African Institute for Aquatic Biodiversity (SAIAB), based in Makhanda formerly known as Grahamstown, Eastern Cape, is a National Research Facility of the National Research Foundation, a public entity, established in terms of the National Research Foundation Act No. 23 of 1998. SAIAB is an internationally recognised centre for the study of aquatic biodiversity.

SAIAB is a biological sciences research institute specialising in aquatic biodiversity, with a specific academic focus on fish (Ichthyology). In addition to foundational taxonomy and systematics, the Institute specialises in providing cutting-edge research infrastructure platforms for research in marine and freshwater environments, the curation and management of biological specimens and tissue samples, molecular biology and genomics and the supervision of postgraduate students.

PART A - THE CONTRACT

OBJECTIVE OF THIS PROCUREMENT

The NRF SAIAB wishes to appoint a local service provider to supply and provide after-sales services on a variety of specialised marine underwater coastal and deep-water research equipment for a period of (5) five years.

The appointed service provider will be expected to act as an agent for Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEMs) currently used at SAIAB and have the in-house capacity to co-develop novel research equipment. Current OEMs include:

- Edgetech
- XEOS
- Engineered Syntactic Systems
- Ocean Test Equipment
- Wildlife Computers
- Star-Oddi
- Seabird
- Lowell Instruments

The in-house capacity for co-development of research equipment will include various types of electrical and mechanical engineering, programming and software development. This will include, but is not limited to, the development of underwater camera and light controllers, development of underwater lights, programmable electronic triggers (opening/closing) and self-contained power supplies. All co-development of products will be subject to intellectual property agreements that will be specified prior to jobs being agreed on in accordance with NRF regulations.

Bid Number: NRF/SAIAB/61/2023-24 Page 3 of 59

The contract will include the maintenance management of existing equipment as well as equipment procured through this contract. This will include in-house servicing as well as facilitating scheduled and unscheduled maintenance and calibrations by the equipment OEMs. The appointed service provider will be expected to assist SAIAB with the management of the equipment including services and technical support.

The procurement will include an initial purchase for which the detailed requirements are known (see Detailed Specifications), as well as downstream procurement of items that will be based on SAIABs research needs and the availability of funding. Future procurement will be in line with the broad objectives of this contract. Maintenance, servicing and calibration of equipment will be based on scheduled plans based on OEM recommended best-practices and unscheduled maintenance and repairs, as and when necessary.

PRE-REQUISITES - COMPATIBILITY WITH SAIAB'S EXISTING SOFTWARE AND COMPONENTS

- The procurements on this contract will complement existing infrastructure and software rather than replace it thus allowing in-house redundancy rather than duplication of non-compatible infrastructure / resources. Bidders' solutions must be compatible with the existing research equipment and software currently in use.
- The NRF has invested considerable funds into the development of marine research infrastructure over the last 10 years and where relevant all new equipment will need to be compatible with existing systems and produce equivalent data.

PART D - BID SELECTION PROCESS

This bid will be evaluated in three stages as follows:

STAGE 1: SUBMISSION OF RETURNABLE DOCUMENTS AND SCHEDULES

Bids will be evaluated for compliance with the procedural requirements of the bid, which entails the completion and/or submission of the returnable documents and schedules specified in the Returnable Documents and Schedules Checklist in page 25 below.

Failure to comply with the mandatory requirements in this stage may result in bid disqualification. However, SAIAB may apply the discretion to allow bidders to complete and/or sign returnable schedules not completed and/or signed in the first instance or to submit returnable documents not submitted in the first instance. Such returnable schedules or documents must be of a purely administrative nature (such as SBD forms or B-BBEE certificate), and may not pertain to the substance of the bid such as to affect the competitive position of bidders by giving one or more bidders a second and unfair opportunity to augment the quality (substantive) aspects of their bid. No award will be done without complete provision of returnable documents and schedules.

STAGE 2: TECHNICAL EVALUATION

Each bid will be evaluated against the technical/quality criteria outlined in pages 35-37 below.

Bids which fail to meet the requirements of Stage 2 will be disqualified and not evaluated further in Stage 3.

STAGE 3: PRICE AND SPECIFIC GOALS POINTS SCORING

Bid price proposals are compared on an equal and fair basis, considering all aspects of the bid pricing requirements. Qualifying bids are ranked on price and specific goals points claimed in the following manner:

- (i) Price with the lowest priced bid receiving the highest price score as set out in the Preferential Procurement Regulations 2022;
- (ii) Preference preference points are allocated in accordance with the Preferential Procurement Policy Framework Act (Act 5 of 2000) and its Regulations 2022 as claimed in the specific goals claim form (SBD 6.1) supported by a valid B-BBEE certificate or sworn affidavit, in the case of EMEs and QSEs, are added to the price ranking scores.

STAGE 1 – SUBMISSION OF RETURNABLE DOCUMENTS AND SCHEDULES

All mandatory criteria need to be complied with to move on to the next stage of evaluation. All SBD forms indicated as mandatory must be completed and signed by bidders failing which, a bid submission may be disqualified for non-compliance. SAIAB may apply the discretion to allow bidders to complete and/or sign returnable schedules not completed and/or signed in the first instance or to submit returnable documents not submitted in the first instance. Such returnable schedules or documents must be of a purely administrative nature (e.g. SBD forms, Construction Sector B-BBEE certificate), and may not pertain to the substance of the bid such as to affect the competitive position of bidders by giving one or more bidders a second and unfair opportunity to augment the quality (substantive) aspects of their bid.

Converting to pdf

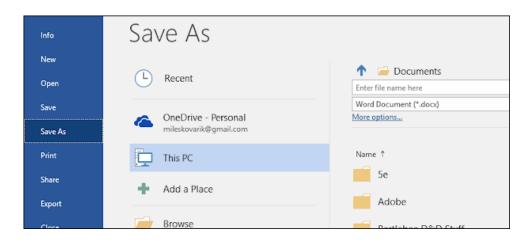

- If you have the desktop version of Microsoft Word, the easiest way to convert your document to PDF is right in Word itself.
- Open the document you want to convert, and then click the "File" tab.

On the backstage screen, select "Save As" from the list on the left.

 On the Save As screen, select where you would like the PDF to be saved (OneDrive, This PC, a particular folder, or wherever).

 Next, click the dropdown arrow on the right side of the "Save as type" box, and select "PDF (*.pdf)" from the dropdown menu.

o If you want to, you can change the filename at this time. When you're ready, click the "Save" button.

 After saving the PDF, you'll be returned to your Word document, and the new PDF will open automatically in your default PDF viewer.

Password protecting files

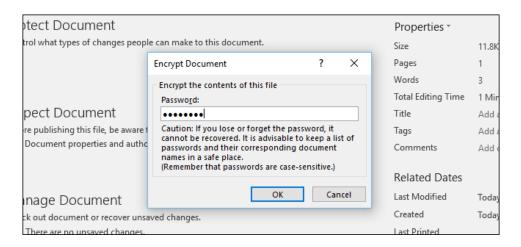

- To password protect an Office document, first open it in Word, Excel, PowerPoint, or Access. Click the "File" menu at the top-left corner of the screen. On the Info pane, click the "Protect Document" button and select "Encrypt with Password."
- The button is only named "Protect Document" in Microsoft Word, but it's named something similar in other apps. Look for "Protect Workbook" in Microsoft Excel and "Protect Presentation" in Microsoft PowerPoint. In Microsoft Access, you'll just see an "Encrypt with Password" button on the Info tab. The steps will otherwise work the same.

 NOTE: If you only want to restrict editing of the document, you can choose "Restrict Editing" here, but as we said, that is not very secure and can easily be bypassed. You're better off encrypting the entire document, if you can.

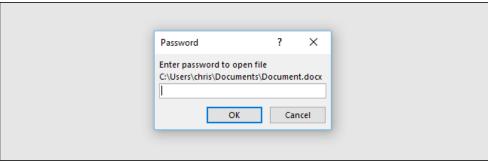

- Enter the password you want to encrypt the document with. You'll want to choose a good password here. Weak passwords can be easily guessed by cracking software if someone gains access to the document.
- Warning: You'll lose access to the document if you ever forget your password, so keep it safe!
 Microsoft advises you write down the name of the document and its password and keep it in a safe place.

 When a document is encrypted, you'll see the "A password is required to open this document" message on the Info screen.

• The next time you open the document, you'll see an "Enter password to open file" box. If you don't enter the correct password, you won't be able to view the document at all.

To remove the password protection from a document, click the "Protect Document" button and select "Encrypt with Password" again. Enter a blank password and click "OK." Office will remove the password from the document.

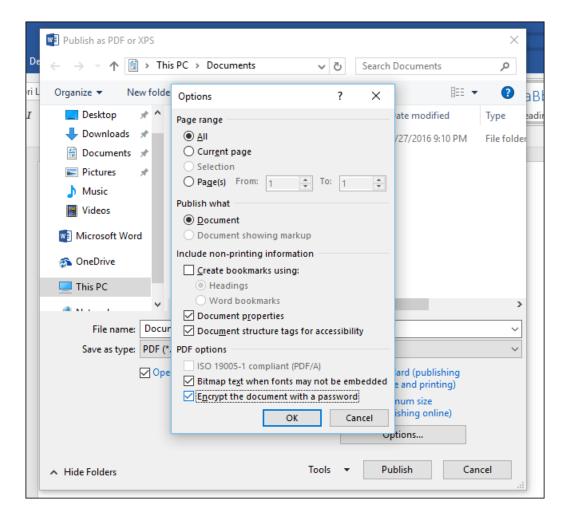

How to Create a Password Protected PDF File

- You can also export an Office document to a PDF file and password protect that PDF file. The PDF document will be encrypted with the password you provide. This works in Microsoft Word but not Excel, for some reason.
- To do this, open the document in Microsoft Word, click the "File" menu button, and select "Export."

Click the "Options" button at the bottom of the save dialog window that appears. At the bottom of the options window, enable the "Encrypt the document with a password" option and click "OK."

- Enter the password you want to encrypt the PDF file with and then click "OK."
- When you're done, enter a name for the PDF file and click the "Publish" button. Office will export the document to a password-protected PDF file.
 - Warning: You won't be able to view the PDF file if you forget the password. Be sure to keep track of it or you'll lose access to your PDF file.

You'll have to enter the PDF file's password when you open it. For example, if you open the PDF file in Microsoft Edge–Windows 10's default PDF viewer–you'll be asked to enter the password before you can view it. This also works in other PDF readers.

Zipping your files.

- Put all the files into a new folder
- o Right-click on the folder to be sent
- Select "Send To" and then click "Compressed (Zipped) folder"
- The files will start compressing
- After the compression process is complete, attach the compressed file with the extension .zip to your email.

Keeping passwords safe.

We recommend that you store the password either as a note on a hardcopy document which is then filed or stored safely or a softcopy that is saved in the bid response folder once the bid has been submitted or in line with your document management policy.
