SECTION 2: BACKGROUND, PURPOSE, AND SCOPE OF WORK

2.1 Background and/or Purpose of this Bid

Since inception approximately 20 years ago, Airports Company South Africa Limited (ACSA) has transformed into a focused, profitable, and commercial enterprise that is market-driven and customer service oriented.

ACSA is mandated by national government to run, manage, and develop airports. ACSA has a role to play in contributing towards South African's economic recovery and growth plan post the pandemic. ACSA can achieve this catalyst role through the monetization of property, ensuring the increase of its commercial business and revenue stream opportunities.

ACSA's is planning to build hotels at three of its airports, George, King Shaka, and CapeTown International Airport. This aligns with ACSA's aerotropolis strategy and development, which aims to create sustainable value over the short, medium, and long-term that will positively impact not only ACSA's business but also its people, the society in which it operates, and its environment. In addition to the hotels, the development plan includes the establishment of a conference centre at King Shaka Airport, further enriching the overall vision for these airport expansions.

2.2 Scope of Work

The consultant will conduct a feasibility study on hotel development for ACSA. The study must also include a feasibility study for conversion of what was previously a restaurant, into a conference centre. The study will include an analysis of the current market conditions, an assessment of the demand for hotel facilities and the conference centre, and a review of the competitive landscape. The consultant will also provide recommendations on the optimal size, location, and design of the hotels. The consultant should conduct a thorough analysis of the market demand for hotels at the three airports, including the current and future demand, competition, and trends. Additionally, analysis of a conference centre at KSIA.

The consultant should analyse the suitability of the sites for hotel development and conference centre, including the location, accessibility, and availability of utilities and infrastructure. The consultant should prepare a detailed financial analysis of the project, including the projected development costs, operating costs, and revenue projections over the next 10 years.

The consultant should review plans for the facility, the scope of the development, and projected costs to make recommendations for the proposed hotels and conference centre. The scope of recommendations includes the number of guestrooms, number of restaurants and lounges, amount of meeting space, recreational and aquatic features, retail shops, spa, and other amenities. The same should apply to the conference centre and the amenities that comes with them.

The consultant should conduct an environmental impact assessment of the proposed hotels, including the potential impact on the surrounding environment and community. The consultant should review all relevant regulations and standards related to hotel development and operation, including zoning laws, building codes, and safety regulations.

The consultant should identify and assess potential risks associated with the project, including financial, legal, environmental, and operational risks.

The consultant should prepare a project plan, including the design, construction, and operation of the hotels and conference centre, and a project schedule and budget.

The design and costing should take into consideration the sustainability of the hotels and their operations, including energy efficiency, waste reduction, and water conservation measures.

The study must include the optimum number of rooms and its occupancy rate, hotel rates the hotel star rating and its best location at the respective airports.

The capacity of the facilities that are to be included in the hotel development must also be included. A supply and demand analysis must be performed to determine the sustainable profitability of a hotel development.

The consultants must also provide ACSA with the best development options, operating models, finance and investment opportunities.

This will be used to present to internal ACSA investment committees. Once the investment option is approved, the consultant must provide input to the development agreement.

The consultants is to consider the regulatory and zoning requirements when designing the hotels. Airports are a unique facility. Hotels built in the vicinity of airports must adhere to height, noise, and visual restrictions as per ICAO Annexure 14 requirements.

The above scope of works is to be concluded in a 3-month period. The appointment of the team however will be done for a period of 12 months. Whilst the works will be completed in the 3-month period noted above, the extended appointment will allow ACSA to update the design and/ or cost in the subsequent months if necessary, subject to pre-approval.

It is expected that the key consultant subcontract the services of a property developer, environmental specialist, project manager, town planner, structural engineer, mechanical engineer, electrical engineer, civil engineer, and I.T engineer to assist with the preparation of the necessary deliverables including the technical report to determine the project viability.

The following are key deliverables:

Prefeasibility, Preparation & Briefing Report:

This will include assessment of previous feasibility studies conducted where applicable. The consultant is to develop a report to address the client's requirement based on the client's brief. Determine the site rights and constraints and all statutory authority applications and studies that will be required as well as cost estimates.

Market Study:

The current and projected market scan for the supply and demand of hotels must be presented. This will include the economic, tourism and hotel performance. A recommendation on the hotel concept and pricing must be made for the respective airports. Hotel occupancy rates, daily pricing rates, length of stay, clientele, and facilities to be included must form part of the study. The best suited location and start rating must be considered.

Financial Projections:

A feasibility study must be produced based on the hotel development cost and returns to earned. The cost report must include predevelopment costs, detailed development costs, as well as consideration for post development costs. A sensitivity analysis must also be conducted for the projected returns.

Implementation Plan and Development Agreement:

The consultants must also provide the client with the best development options, operating models, finance, and investment opportunities. The options must include an implementation plan. This will be used to present to internal ACSA investment committees. Once the investment option is approved, the consultant must provide input to the development agreement.

SECTION 5: RETURNABLE DOCUMENTS

5.1 DECLARATION OF INTEREST AND POLITICALLY EXPOSED PERSONS FORM

Making a Declaration

Any legal person or persons having a relationship with persons employed by ACSA, including a blood relationship, may submit a bid in terms of this tender document. In view of possible allegations of unfairness, should the resulting bid, or part thereof, be awarded to persons connected with or related to ACSA employees, it is required that the bidder or his/her authorised representative declare his/her position in relation to ACSA employees or any member of the evaluation or adjudication committee which will consider bids.

ACSA requires all bidders to declare that they have not acted in any manner inconsistent with the law, policy, or fairness. Furthermore, ACSA requires bidders to declare if they have Politically Exposed Persons (PEP) also known as Domestic Prominent Influential Persons (DPIP) in their organisation. See below definition of PEP/DPIP.

Politically Exposed Persons or DPIP are individuals who are or have been entrusted with prominent public functions in the country or a foreign country, for example Heads of State or of government, senior politicians, senior government, judicial or military officials, senior executives of state-owned corporations, important political party officials. Business relationships with family members or close associates of PEPs involve reputational risks similar to those with PEPs themselves. PEP status in the following areas shall be declared:

- Current or former senior official in the executive, legislative, administrative, military, or judicial branch of government or foreign government (elected or not)
- A senior official of a major political party or major foreign political party;
- A senior executive of government owned commercial enterprise
- or a foreign government owned commercial enterprise, being a corporation, business or other entity formed by or for the benefit of any such individual;
- A related and or inter-related immediate member of such individual; meaning spouse, parents, siblings, children, and spouse's parents or siblings etc receiving party to another person or entity which is not a party to this agreement, this may cause the disclosing party to suffer damages and material financial loss.

2.3 This agreement shall also bind the parties, notwithstanding the date of signature hereof, in the event that either party shall have disclosed any confidential information to the other party prior to date of signature hereof.

2.4 The parties wish to record the terms and conditions upon which each shall disclose confidential information to the other, which terms and conditions shall constitute a binding and enforceable agreement between the parties and their agents.

3 USE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Any confidential information disclosed by the disclosing party shall be received and used by the receiving party only for the limited purpose described in 2.1 above and for no other purpose.

4 NON-DISCLOSURE

4.1 THE RECEIVING PARTY undertakes that –

4.1.1 it will treat the disclosing party's confidential information as private and confidential and safeguard it accordingly;

4.1.2 it will not use (except as permitted in 3 above) or disclose or release or copy or reproduce or publish or circulate or reverse or engineer and/or decompile or otherwise transfer, whether directly or indirectly, the confidential information of the disclosing party to any other person or entity; and the receiving party shall take all such steps as may be reasonably necessary to prevent the disclosing party's confidential information falling into the hands of unauthorised persons or entities;

4.1.3 it shall not disclose the confidential information of the disclosing party to any employee, consultant, professional adviser, contractor or sub-contractor or agent of the receiving party (collectively referred to herein as "representative") or an affiliate of the receiving party, nor shall they be given access thereto by the receiving party -

4.1.4 unless it is strictly necessary for the purposes referred to in 2.1 above; and

4.1.5 the receiving party shall have procured that the representative, affiliate or consultant to whom or to which such information is disclosed or made available shall have agreed to be bound by all the terms of this agreement, and, in such event, the receiving party hereby indemnifies the disclosing party against any loss, harm or damage which it may suffer as a result of the unauthorised disclosure of confidential information by a representative, affiliate or consultant.

- 4.2 Any documentation or written record or other material containing confidential information (in whatsoever form) which comes into the possession of the receiving party shall itself be deemed to form part of the confidential information of the disclosing party. The receiving party shall, on request, and in any event if the discussions referred to in 2.1 above should not result in an agreement, return to the disclosing party all of its confidential information which is in physical form (including all copies) and shall destroy any other records (including, without limitation, those in machine readable form) as far as they contain the disclosing party's confidential information. The receiving party will, upon written or oral request from the disclosing party and within five (5) business days of the disclosing party's request, provide the disclosing party with written confirmation that all such records have been destroyed.

5. COPIES

- 5.1 The receiving party may only make such copies of the disclosing party's confidential information as are strictly necessary for the purpose and the disclosures which are not in breach of this agreement and authorised in terms of this agreement. The receiving party shall clearly mark all such copies as "Confidential".
- 5.2 At the written request of the disclosing party, the receiving party shall supply to the disclosing party a list showing, to the extent practical –
- 5.2.1 where copies of the confidential Information are held;
  - 5.2.2 copies that have been made by the receiving party (except where they contain insignificant extracts from or references to confidential information) and where they are held; and
  - 5.2.3 the names and addresses of the persons to whom confidential information has been disclosed and, if applicable, a copy of the confidentiality undertaking signed by such persons complying with the provisions of this agreement.

6. THE USE OF THE COMPANY'S INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- 6.1 The receiving party shall not use any intellectual property of the Company (including trademarks, service marks, logos, slogans, trade names, brand names and other indicia of origin) (collectively, the "Company IP") for any reason whatsoever without first obtaining the Company's prior written consent which consent the Company shall be entitled to grant solely at its own discretion.
- 6.2 If the receiving party requires the use of such Company IP, a request must be sent to the email Hopewell.Mhlongo@airports.co.za Each single request by the same receiving party shall be treated as a new request.

- 6.3 Should the Company provide its consent in terms of clause 6.1 above, the receiving party shall comply with the Company's policies and standards with regard to the use of the Company IP. Such policies and standards shall be communicated to the receiving party at the time the Company grants the consent to the receiving party.
- 6.4 Failure to adhere to the provisions of this clause 6 or the policies, brand requirements and protocols that will be communicated by the Brand Custodians Office to the receiving party, shall result in the penalty equal to the value of 2% (two per cent) of the receiving party's annual turnover in the financial year in which the aforesaid failure occurred.

7. DURATION

- 7.1 Subject to Clause 2.3 this agreement shall commence or shall be deemed to have commenced on the date of signature of this agreement by the last party to sign the agreement.
- 7.2 This agreement shall remain in force for a period of 5 years ("the term"), or for a period of one (1) year from the date of the last disclosure of confidential information to the receiving party, whichever is the longer period, whether or not the parties continue to have any relationship for that period of time.

8. TITLE

- 8.1 All confidential information disclosed by the disclosing party to the receiving party is acknowledged by the receiving party:
- 8.1.1 to be proprietary to the disclosing party; and
- 8.1.2 not to confer any rights to the receiving party of whatever nature in the confidential information.

9. RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE PARTIES

- 9.1 The disclosing party is not obliged, by reason of this agreement, to disclose any of its confidential information to the receiving party or to enter into any further agreement or business relationship with the receiving party. Nothing herein shall imply or create any exclusive relationship between the Parties or otherwise restrict either Party from pursuing any business opportunities provided it complies at all times with the non-disclosure obligations set forth herein

- 9.2 The disclosing party retains the sole and exclusive ownership of intellectual property rights to its confidential information and no license or any other interest in such confidential information is granted in terms hereof or by reason of its disclosure.
- 9.3 The termination of the discussions referred to in 2.1 above shall not release the parties from the obligations set out in this agreement.

10. ENFORCEMENT, GOVERNING LAWS AND JURISDICTION

- 10.1 This agreement shall be governed by and interpreted according to the laws of the Republic of South Africa, without reference to the choice of laws' provisions of the Republic of South Africa. In the event of a conflict between or inconsistency in the laws applicable in the various provinces of the Republic of South Africa, the law as applied and interpreted in the Gauteng Province shall prevail.
- 10.2 The parties irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the High Court of South Africa, Witwatersrand Local Division, in respect of any action or proceeding arising from this agreement.
- 10.3 The parties agree that, in the event of a breach of this agreement, monetary damages would not be an adequate remedy. In the event of a breach or threatened breach of any provisions of this agreement by the receiving party, the disclosing party (and/or its relevant affiliate) shall be entitled to injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction and the receiving party shall reimburse the disclosing party for any costs, claims, demands or liabilities arising directly or indirectly out of a breach. Nothing contained in this agreement shall be construed as prohibiting a party or its affiliate from pursuing any other remedies available to it for a breach or threatened breach.
- 10.4 The failure by the disclosing party to enforce or to require the performance at any time of any of the provisions of this agreement shall not be construed to be a waiver of such provision, and shall not affect either the validity of this agreement or any part hereof or the right of the disclosing party to enforce the provisions of this agreement.

11. DOMICILIUM

- 11.1 The parties choose as their domicilium the addresses indicated in the heading to this agreement for the purposes of giving any notice, the payment of any sum, the serving of any process and for any other purpose arising from this agreement.
- 11.2 Each of the parties shall be entitled from time to time, by written notice to the other, to vary its domicilium to any other address which is not a post office box or poste restante.
- 11.3 Any notice required or permitted to be given in terms of this agreement shall be valid and effective only if in writing.

POPIA ANNEXURE:

CONFIDENTIALITY AND DATA PROTECTION

Save as provided in this clause (Confidentiality and Data Protection), each Party shall, and shall procure that its Affiliate and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, auditors and advisors shall, treat as confidential all information relating to the other Party or its Affiliates thereof or relating to their respective businesses that is of a confidential nature and which is obtained by that Party in terms of, or arising from the implementation of this Agreement, which may become known to it by virtue of being a Party, and shall not reveal, disclose or authorise the disclosure of any such information to any third party or use such information for its own purpose or for any purposes other than those related to the implementation of this Agreement.

The obligations of confidentiality in this clause shall not apply in respect of the disclosure or use of such information in the following circumstances:

in respect of any information which is previously known by such Party (other than as a result of any breach or default by any Party or other person of any agreement by which such Confidential Information was obtained by such Party);

in respect of any information which is in the public domain (other than as a result of any breach or default by either Party);

any disclosure to either Party's professional advisors, executive staff, board of directors or similar governing body who (i) such Party believes have a need to know such information, and (ii) are notified of the confidential nature of such information and are bound by a general duty of confidentiality in respect thereof materially similar to that set out herein;

any disclosure required by law or by any court of competent jurisdiction or by any regulatory authority or by the rules or regulations of any stock exchange;

any disclosure made by a Party made in accordance with that Party's pursuit of any legal remedy;
