2. The cover provided and the deductibles under the works policy are different to those under the assets policy. Each policy has a range of applicable deductibles depending on the location of the Affected Property and the nature of the insurable event.
3. The Contractor is required in terms of Contract Data for clause 83 to provide cover for the deductibles in the insurance provided by the Employer. This can be provided from his own resources on a 'self insured' basis or obtained by him from his own insurers. In order to assess the extent of this cover, Contracting Contractors and their brokers should consult the internet web link given below and scroll to 'Format TSC3' to establish both the cover and the deductibles in relation to the service provided in terms of this Contract.
4. Contracting Contractors should note that cover provided by the Employer is only per the policies available on the internet web link listed below and may not be the cover required by the Contracting Contractor or as intended by each of the listed insurances in the left hand column of the Insurance Table in clause 83.2. In terms of clause 83.1 "the Contractor provides the insurances stated in the Insurance Table except any insurance which the Employer is to provide". Hence the Contractor provides insurance which the Employer does not provide and in cases where the Employer does provide insurance the Contractor insures for the difference between what the Insurance Table requires and what the Employer provides.

C2.1 Pricing assumptions: Option A

How work is priced and assessed for payment

Clause 11 in NEC3 Term Service Contract (TSC3) core clauses and Option A states:

Identified and defined terms	11
	11.2	(12) The Price List is the price list unless later changed in accordance with this Contract.
		(17) The Price for Services Provided to Date is the total of <ul style="list-style-type: none">• the Price for each lump sum item in the Price List which the Contractor has completed and• Where a quantity is stated for an item in the Price List, an amount calculated by multiplying the quantity which the Contractor has completed by the rate.
		(19) The Prices are the amounts stated in the Price column of the Price List. Where a quantity is stated for an item in the Price List, the Price is calculated by multiplying the quantity by the rate.

This confirms that Option A is a priced Contract where the Prices are derived from a list of items of service which can be priced as lump sums or as expected quantities of service multiplied by a rate or a mix of both.

Function of the Price List

Clause 54.1 in Option A states: "Information in the Price List is not Service Information". This confirms that instructions to do work or how it is to be done are not included in the Price List but in the Service Information. This is further confirmed by Clause 20.1 which states, "The Contractor Provides the Service in accordance with the Service Information". Hence the Contractor does not provide the Service in accordance with the Price List. The Price List is only a pricing document.

Link to the Contractor's plan

Clause 21.4 states "The Contractor provides information which shows how each item description on the Price List relates to the operations on each plan which he submits for acceptance". Hence when compiling the price list, the Contracting Contractor needs to develop his first clause 21.2 plan in such a way that operations shown on it can be priced in the price list and result in a satisfactory cash flow in terms of clause 11.2(17).

Preparing the price list

Before preparing the price list, both the Employer and Contracting Contractors should read the TSC3 Guidance Notes pages 14 and 15. In an Option A Contract, either Party may have entered items into the price list either as a process of offer and acceptance (Contracting) or by negotiation depending on the nature of the service to be provided. Alternatively the Employer, in his Instructions to Contractors or in a Contract Schedule, may have listed some items that he requires the Contractor to include in the price list to be prepared and priced by him.

The provision of security guarding services: 24/7 unarmed physical/ static guarding, adhoc security related services, K9 services, crime prevention patrols and armed response for LimLanga Cluster-Limpopo.

Tender no. LP0093MMR

It is assumed that in preparing or finalising the price list the Contractor:

- Has taken account of the guidance given in the TSC3 Guidance Notes relevant to Option A;
- Understands the function of the Price List and how work is priced and paid for;
- Is aware of the need to link operations shown in his plan to items shown in the Price List;
- Has listed and priced items in the price list which are inclusive of everything necessary and incidental to Providing the Service in accordance with the Service Information, as it was at the time of Contract, as well as correct any Defects not caused by an Employer's risk;
- Has priced work he decides not to show as a separate item within the Prices or rates of other listed items in order to fulfil the obligation to complete the service for the Contracted total of the Prices.
- Understands there is no adjustment to items priced as lump sums if the amount, or quantity, of work within that item later turns out to be different to that which the Contractor estimated at time of Contract. The only basis for a change to the (lump sum) Prices is as a result of a compensation event.

Format of the price list

(From the example given in an Appendix within the TSC3 Guidance Notes)

Entries in the first four columns in the price list in section C2.2 are made either by the Employer or the Contracting Contractor.

If the Contractor is to be paid an amount for the item which is not adjusted if the quantity of work in the item changes, the Contracting Contractor enters the amount in the Price column only, the Unit, Expected Quantity and Rate columns being left blank.

If the Contractor is to be paid an amount for an item of work which is the rate for the work multiplied by the quantity completed, the Contracting Contractor enters the rate which is then multiplied by the Expected Quantity to produce the Price, which is also entered.

If the Contractor is to be paid a Price for an item proportional to the length of time for which a service is provided, a unit of time is stated in the Unit column and the expected length of time (as a quantity of the stated units of time) is stated in the Expected Quantity column.

Environmental constraints and management

The Contractor shall comply with the environmental criteria and constraints stated in Annexure _____

Guidelines of Compiling an Environmental Policy

Environmental policy

The environmental policy is the driver for implementing and improving the organization's environmental management system so that it can maintain and potentially improve its environmental performance. The policy should therefore reflect the commitment of top management to comply with applicable laws and to demonstrate continual improvement. The policy forms the basis upon which the organization sets its objectives and targets. The policy should be sufficiently clear to be capable of being understood by internal and external interested parties and should be periodically reviewed and revised to reflect changing conditions and information.

Top management shall define the organization's environmental policy and ensure that it:

Top management includes people on site, at head office, or any member of a controlling group designated to be management of the organization.

A site or an operating unit does not need to document its formal adoption of a corporate environmental policy if the corporate policy, as defined by its scope, applies to the site or operating unit. In addition, the corporate policy will need to be adequately specific to the site or operating unit.

If the site or corporate policy is modified to suit the site or operating unit, then these changes must be documented.

a) is appropriate to the nature, scale and environmental impacts of its activities, products or services;

for example, an organization involved in activities with a high environmental risk (for example, scheduled processes) would be expected to provide more specific undertakings in its environmental policy than an organization involved in low risk activities. The environmental policy should also address the different types of environmental impacts of the organization's activities, products or services.

This does not imply that all environmental impacts be addressed in the policy but that the framework of the policy covers all significant impacts (see 4.2 d).

b) includes a commitment to continual improvement and prevention of pollution;

The words "continual improvement" and "pollution prevention" do not need to be explicitly mentioned as long as similar words are used or there are clear statements in the policy that directly address pollution reduction

(for example, waste minimization, source reduction and cleaner technologies) and continual improvement. Pollution prevention is more than just pollution control and requires preventive measures, instead of only control.

c) includes a commitment to comply with relevant environmental legislation and regulations,

Compliance with all relevant legislated and other requirements (National, provincial and local) is a minimum requirement for certification.

Exceptions to this are where:

- a) The authorities have been informed of the non-compliance in writing;
- b) A corrective action programme is in place;
- c) Evidence is available that the authorities have accepted the corrective action programme;
- d) Evidence is available that the corrective action programme is being implemented.

Where a permit for a process of the organization has expired and the organization can provide evidence of due diligence, for example, records of telephone calls, faxes to the regulator or minutes of meetings with the regulator showing that they are in the process of applying for new permits.

The word comply does not need to be explicitly mentioned in the environmental policy, as long as there are similar words (for example, adhere to, in accordance with) clearly communicating commitment to compliance with legislation and regulations.

d and with other requirements to which the organization subscribes;

The “other requirements” may include:

- a) Industry initiatives, non-regulatory guidelines or codes of practice such as Responsible Care or more general environmental initiatives such as the business Charter for Sustainable Development to the extent that the organization has formally adopted them;
- b) Agreements with public authorities;
- c) Formal management systems such as SABS ISO 9001/2, NOSA and ISRS; and
- d) Corporate or Head office requirements.

If an organization subscribes to other requirements (as in 4.2(c) a) and b) above in their environmental policy then:

- 1) The certification body will verify compliance with these requirements;
- 2) Compliance with those requirements will not be included in the scope of the certificate; and
- 3) Non-compliance with these requirements could provide grounds for not granting certification.

If an organization subscribes to other requirements (as in 4.2(c)) c) above then the certification body will only verify compliance with the SABS ISO 14001 requirements and not to those other formal management systems. (An exception to this is where the organization requests a combined SABS ISO 14001 and SABS ISO 9000 certification assessment/audit).

e) Provides the framework for setting and reviewing environmental objectives and targets;

The policy should be sufficiently detailed to provide a yardstick against which the organization’s environmental performance can be evaluated.

The policy wording must be specific enough so that specific objectives and targets can be formulated from it by the organization in order to implement the policy.

f) Is documented, implemented and maintained ...

The policy can be documented in any form (i.e. paper or electronic).

All the requirements of SABS ISO 14001 shall be addressed and an organization cannot elect to omit any of these requirements from its environmental management system.

Policies tend to set long-term goals.

The policy should be periodically reviewed and revised in response to new information and changing circumstances.

The policy must be reviewed periodically – at least annually.

It is not expected that the policy be reissued annually. A well-developed policy can effectively drive the organization’s environmental management system for several years.

g) ... and communicated to all employees;

Communication involves both the transmission and the understanding of the policy.

Communication mechanisms can include posting the policy in common areas, distributing it by memo, and reviewing it at staff or “toolbox talks” meetings.

A person’s level of knowledge of the policy should be proportional to his/her level of responsibility in the environmental management system i.e. senior staff responsible for ensuring implementation need a greater knowledge of the policy than personnel at shop-floor level. In the South African context, unskilled, illiterate workers cannot be expected to have in-depth knowledge of the contents of the environmental policy, however all employees are expected to have an idea of the concepts of the environment, why it is important to protect the environment, and of their role in achieving this (see also 4.4.2).

h) is available to the public

The policy must be available to any interested party on request.

The words “is available” do not necessarily mean that the organization has to pro-actively distribute the policy to the public. The organization should however make the public aware of the fact that the policy is available.

A mechanism should be in place to have the policy available to the public.

i) Key component of the policy

The policy provides an environmental purpose and set of values for the organization to follow.

The policy should:

- a) Be relevant and straightforward;
 - b) Relay that protection of the environment is a top priority of the organization;

- c) Show commitment to continued improvement of environmental performance and compliance with the laws and regulations;
- d) Clearly specify which organizational activities are covered by the statement;
- e) Be a natural jumping-off point for setting environmental objectives and targets;
- f) Provide a framework for assessing progress made with the targets and objectives that are oriented towards minimizing environmental impacts.

j) Communication, promotion and support of policy

The policy statement will be totally ineffective if the commitment it contains is not communicated, made available, promoted and supported by all. It is important to note that the policy:

- a) Should be available to all employees in the organization;
 - b) Should be communicated repeatedly after a period of time as a reminder;
 - c) Should be made available to the public;
 - d) Should be promptly provided whenever a copy is required;
 - e) Should be signed by top management to show commitment and support.
- Repeated exposure is the key to communicating the policy effectively thus it can be posted, communicated through news letters or sent to desktop personal computers.
