SPCA blessed with funds left in estate

Tamlyn Head

IT was a case of prayers answered for Richards Bay SPCA when they were blessed with a windfall from a late supporter.

Unbeknown to the SPCA, Susan Phillis Nel had sadly passed away, but in her will had left a hefty donation to the local branch.

"I got a telephone call from a lawyer saying Mrs Nel had passed away and advising me of the money she had left us," said SPCA chairperson Engela Hamman.

"I am filled with gratitude towards Mrs Nel for entrusting our committee with her generous donation.

"After our bakkie was stolen, we struggled with old, broken vehicles, but her contribution means the world to us.

"We will always thank her from the bottom of our hearts for using her hard-earned money to care for our beloved animals," said Hamman.

Not only has the Bay SPCA battled in recent months after the theft of their only working vehicle in October, but, unable to afford a decent running bakkie, they have suffered for years with unreliable cars.

The roads they have to traverse to reach their massive coverage area, much of which is rural, have not helped.

The Bay SPCA committee and staff members can now breathe a sigh of relief as vehicle issues are a thing of the past.

They have put in place several safety measures to further protect their staff and the new bakkie.

Ecstatically taking delivery of the new vehicle is Engela Hamman (SPCA chairperson) with Neva Bekker (Suzuki sales rep), and the plaque of thanks to Susan Phillis Nel for her generous donation
