1.1. Bid Submission Requirements

- 1.1.1. Bids must be delivered by the stipulated closing date and time to the correct address.
- 1.1.2. No late submissions will be accepted by the cidb
- 1.1.3. All bidders are required to accept the general conditions of contract (GCC) and, if applicable any special conditions of contract
- 1.1.4. Signing requirements of a consortium or joint venture
- 1.1.5. Proposals submitted by a consortium, or a joint venture shall be signed by the lead Member so as to legally bind all the constituent members of the consortium.
- 1.1.6. Proof of the authorisation of the lead Member to act on behalf of the consortium or a joint venture shall be included in the proposal submitted.
- 1.1.7. The lead Member shall be the only authorised party to make legal statements and receive instruction for and on behalf of any and all partners of the consortium or the joint venture.
- 1.1.8. A copy of the agreement entered into by the consortium partners or the joint venture partners for the formation of the consortium or joint venture shall be submitted with the Proposal.
- 1.1.9. The consortium/joint venture must submit a consortium/joint venture BBBEE certificate.
- 1.1.10. In addition, every signatory shall make a written declaration to the effect that all documentation signed by him or her is factually correct and true.

1.2. Bid Submission Instructions

- 1.2.1. The cidb provides the information which is contained in or sent with this Request for Bid (RFB) or which is made available in connection with any further enquiries or in subsequent Briefing Notes, in good faith.
- 1.2.2. This document (which expression shall include all other information, written or oral, made available during the procurement process) is being made available by the cidb to potential Bidders on the condition that it is used solely for this procurement process and for no other purpose. The cidb is not obliged to accept any response to this RFB.
- 1.2.3. Bidders to this RFB will be deemed to have satisfied themselves as to the authority of the cidb to procure the Project and to be fully acquainted with the laws of South Africa (including without limitation all statutes and regulations on a national, provincial and municipal level).
- 1.2.4. Bidders are therefore, at any stage of the Project, not entitled to request any additional information, advice or opinion from any of the officials of the cidb.
- 1.2.5. Each Bidder to whom this RFB (and other related documents) is made available must make his, her or its own independent assessment of the Project.
- 1.2.6. While reasonable care has been taken in preparing this RFB and other related documents, it does not purport to be comprehensive or to have been verified by the cidb, its officials, employees, advisors or any other person. The cidb, its officials, employees or any of its advisors do not accept any liability or responsibility for the adequacy, accuracy or completeness of any of the information or opinions stated in this RFB or other related documents.

- 1.2.7. No representation or warranty, express or implied, is or will be given by the cidb, or any of its officers, employees, servants, agents or advisors with respect to the information or opinions contained in this RFB or other related documents. Any liability in respect of such representations or warranties, howsoever arising is hereby expressly disclaimed.
- 1.2.8. The cidb reserves the right to amend, modify or withdraw this RFB, or to amend, modify or terminate any of the procedures or requirements of the RFB at any time and from time to time, without prior notice and without liability to compensate or reimburse any Bidder.
- 1.2.9. If any Bidder or Bidder, its employees, advisors or agents make or offer to make any gift to any public official or employee of the cidb, consultant to the cidb on the Project either directly or through an intermediary then, such Bidders or Bidder will be disqualified forthwith from participating in the procurement of the Project.

1.3. Bid Submission Conditions

- 1.3.1. The original proposal will be the legal and binding document that will be used for the purposes of evaluation. The cidb will not assume any liability for disqualifying a bidder due to the information not being contained in the original proposal submitted by the bidder.
- 1.3.2. The successful bidder will be required to enter into a written contract for the delivery of the goods / services / works awarded to them.
- 1.3.3. The cidb reserves the right to disqualify any Bid/proposal that is not submitted in accordance with any of the instructions prescribed above.
- 1.3.4. The cidb reserves the right to request the administrative returnable documents after the closing date and time, in instances where the Bidder has not returned the documents. However, the cidb is under no obligation to request such documents or information and may elect to disqualify the Bidder that has not returned the requisite document.
- 1.3.5. The cidb reserves the right to conduct a due-diligence exercise to evaluate the Bidder's capabilities to meet the requirements specified in the RFB and supporting documents
- 1.3.6. Where applicable, The cidb reserves the right to conduct benchmarks on prices and/or product/services offered during and after the evaluation
- 1.3.7. Where the RFB calls for already available solutions, bidders who offer to provide future based solutions will/may be disqualified.
- 1.3.8. Failure or neglect by the cidb to (at any time) enforce any of the provisions of this RFB shall not in any manner, be construed to be a waiver of any of the cidb's rights in that regard and in terms of this RFB. Such failure or neglect shall not, in any manner, affect the continued, unaltered validity of this RFB or prejudice the right of the cidb to institute action or to exercise any other right available to the cidb by law

1.4. Tax Compliance Requirements

- 1.4.1. Bidders must ensure compliance with their tax obligations.
- 1.4.2. Bidders are required to provide their unique personal Identification Number (PIN) issued by SARS to enable the cidb to verify the taxpayer's profile and tax status.
- 1.4.3. Application for Tax Compliance Status (TCS) may be made via e-filing through the SARS website, www.sars.gov.za
- 1.4.4. Bidders may also submit a hard copy TCS certificate with their bid
- 1.4.5. In bids where a consortium, joint venture or sub-contractors are involved, each part must submit a separate TCS PIN / CSD registration number
- 1.4.6. No bids will be accepted from government employees, companies with directors who are government employees or closed corporations with members who are government employees.

1.5. RFB Liaison Structure

- 1.5.1. The cidb has implemented a liaison structure whereby the Project has been allocated a Project Officer, Ntando Skosana
 - 1.5.1.1. Bidders are advised to address all correspondence relating to this Project to the following people as indicated below:
Technical Queries and Bidding Process: Ulizwi Mngoma

Telephone: +27(12) 482 7252

E-mail: Ulizwim@cidb.org.za
- 1.5.2. All correspondence from the Bidder should be addressed to the Project Officer and must be signed by an authorised person or persons, legally binding the Bidder. All such signatures must indicate the name(s) of the person(s) signing them, their position(s) and the name of their organisation.
- 1.5.3. Any additional information, responses to queries and/or changes to the RFB will be communicated to Bidders in the form of Briefing Notes. Bidders are advised to ensure that they have received all issued Briefing Notes.
- 1.5.4. Bidders may ask for clarification on this RFB invite up to 5 (five) business days before the closing date specified for this RFB.

1.6. Proposal Validity

1.6.1. Validity Period

Proposals shall remain valid and open for acceptance for a period 90 days from the closing date, and any agreed extension of the validity period.

1.6.2. Extensions to the Validity Period

The cidb may, in exceptional circumstances, request the Bidder for an extension of the validity period, prior to the expiry of the original proposal validity period. The request and the response thereto shall be made in writing. A Bidder agreeing to the request will not be permitted to modify its Proposal.

1.7. Non-Compulsory briefing session

1.7.1. Bidders are required to attend a non-compulsory briefing session on:

Date:	N/A
Venue:	N/A
Time:	N/A

1.8. Qualification and Evaluation

1.8.1. Evaluation Structure

The cidb has formed a series of bodies to undertake the evaluation process against the stated evaluation criteria. There will be a three (3) tier approach, being:

- 1.8.1.1. The Bid Evaluation Committee, comprised of officials from the cidb and any other government official(s) or external expert(s), who may be appointed by the Accounting Officer in writing, to provide professional advice and input regarding the, technical, financial, and BBBEE aspects of the proposals, reporting to the delegated authority. The Bid Evaluation Committee, assisted by its sub-committees on technical, financial, and BBBEE aspects, shall evaluate the proposals received from the Bidders.
- 1.8.1.2. The Delegated Authority will consider the recommendations from the Bid Evaluation Committee on the Successful Bidder. The delegated authority will, on the basis of the recommendations received from the Bid Evaluation Committee, further recommend to the Accounting Officer the outcome of the Bid Evaluation Committee's report.
- 1.8.1.3. The Accounting Officer reserves the right to modify and amend the above procedures, subject to applicable law at its discretion in appropriate circumstances. Bidders will be notified of any material changes.

1.8.2. Evaluation Approach

- 1.8.2.1. The cidb has adopted a Three (3) stage approach in assessing, analysing and evaluating Proposals, being:

1.8.2.1.1. First stage Administrative

1.8.2.1.2. Second stage: Functionality Criteria

1.8.2.1.3. Third Stage: Price and Preferential Procurement

Number of Relevant Projects

Only projects completed within the last seven (7) years from the date of tender advertisement will be considered for evaluation.

Evaluation will be based on the number of relevant survey projects completed by the bidder within the last 7 years, supported by traceable references.

A relevant project is defined as a project involving the design, implementation, analysis, and reporting of business tendency surveys, business conditions surveys, or similar large-scale economic or comparable research assignments.

Each project must be supported by a verifiable reference confirming the successful completion of the survey. Only projects with valid, traceable references will be considered for scoring.

Table 3: Third Stage: Price Evaluation and Preference

- (a) Subsequent to the evaluation of essential minimum criteria, the second stage of evaluation of the pricing will be in respect of price and preferential procurement only.
- (b) Bidders who obtained less than the minimum threshold of 75 points will be declared non-responsive and therefore will not be eligible for evaluation for Price and Preference procurement.
- (c) Bidders who fail to meet the mandatory requirements will be declared non-responsive and therefore will not be eligible for evaluation of Price and Preference procurement.
- (d) In terms of regulation 4 of the Preferential Procurement Regulations pertaining to the Preferential Procurement Policy Framework Act, 2000 (Act 5 of 2000), responsive bids will be adjudicated by the State on the 80/20-preference point for Specific goals in terms of which points are awarded to bidders on the basis of:
 - (i) The bid price (maximum 80 points)
 - (ii) Specific goals (maximum 20 points)
- (e) The following formula will be used to calculate the points for price in respect of bidders.

80/20

Where:

P_s = Points scored for price of bid under consideration

P_t = Price of bid under consideration

P_{min} = Price of lowest acceptable bid

1.9.4. All Confidential Information provided (including all copies thereof) remains the property of the cidb and must be delivered to the cidb on demand.

1.9.5. By receiving this RFB each Bidder and each of its Members agree to maintain its submission in response to this RFB confidential from third parties other than the cidb and its officials, officers and advisors who are required to review the same for the purpose of the procurement of the Project.

1.9.6. The Confidential Information provided by the cidb may be made available to a Bidder's Relevant Entity, members, employees and professional advisors who are directly involved in the appraisal of such information (who must be made aware of the obligation of confidentiality).

1.9.7. Bidder's Relevant Entity, members, employees and professional advisors shall not be entitled to, either in whole or in part; copy, reproduce, distribute or otherwise make available to any other party the Confidential Information without the prior written consent of the cidb.

1.9.8. The Confidential Information may not be used for any other purpose than that for which it is intended.

1.9.9. All Confidential Information provided (including all copies thereof) remains the property of the cidb and must be delivered to the cidb on demand.

1.10. Intellectual Property

All materials and data which are submitted by Bidders shall become the sole property of the cidb, with the exception of copyrighted material, trade secrets or other proprietary information clearly identified as such by Bidders.

1.11. Indemnity

Bidders shall be deemed by their submission of a proposal to agree to indemnify the cidb and hold it harmless from any claim or liability and defend any action brought or legal step against the cidb for its refusal to disclose materials marked confidential, trade secret or other proprietary information to any person seeking access thereto.

1.12. Governing laws and Rules

1.12.1. The primary enabling legislation for the Project is the PFMA together with the cidb Act, which regulate and create the competency of the cidb to procure and implement the Project.

1.12.2. This RFB is issued by the cidb in terms of the cidb Act and Supply Chain Management read with the PFMA, as the formal step of the procurement process.

1.12.3. Procurement of the Project will be carried out following prescribed legislation, which includes the Constitution, the Preferential Procurement Policy Framework Act, Number 5 of 2000 and the PFMA.

1.12.4. Bidder's Responsibilities

1.12.4.1. If a Bidder identifies any ambiguities, errors or inconsistency between the various documents that form part of this RFB, the Bidders should notify the cidb and the cidb will provide clarification as to the intended position.

1.12.4.2. To the extent that any inconsistency exists between the terms of the General Conditions of Contract and any other provision in the RFB, but such inconsistency is not identified by any Bidder and/or clarified by the cidb prior to submission of the Bidder's Proposal, the terms of the General Conditions of Contract shall prevail.

1.12.5. Contact Policy

1.12.5.1. Bidders and their constituent Members, as well as their agents and advisors and related parties may not contact the employees, advisors of the cidb or any other cidb's official(s) who may be associated with this solicitation (other than the Project Officer), without the prior written approval of the Project Officer save in the case of pre-existing commercial relationships, in which case contact may be maintained only with respect thereto and, in making such permitted contact, no party may make reference to this solicitation or procurement.

1.12.5.2. This no-contact policy does not apply to any information deemed to be in the public domain, or which is readily available from public bodies within the Republic of South Africa where such information is not Project specific and is not under the control of the cidb.

- 1.12.5.3. Bidders, Members, their agents, advisors and related parties may not contact the employees, advisors of the cidb or any of the cidb official(s) engaged in the Project, with a view to offering, whether directly or indirectly, any one or more of them an employment opportunity with the Bidder or any Member thereof.

1.12.6. Corruption

- 1.12.6.1. The cidb is committed to ethical and clean business practice and will not tolerate any impropriety in any respect and in particular with regard to the Project.
- 1.12.6.2. If any Bidder, Member or their employees, shareholders, representatives, advisors or agents make or offers to make any gift or other gratuity to any public official or employee of the cidb, relevant authority, or consultant to the cidb on the Project either directly or through an intermediary, the cidb reserves the right to terminate its relationship, without prejudice to any of Government's rights, with that Bidder or responsible party or entity.
- 1.12.6.3. The cidb and each Bidder must give an undertaking that everything possible would be done to avoid irregularities, bribery and corruption. The cidb reserves the right to appoint an independent probity auditor to monitor in this regard the procurement process and the activities during the contract period.

1.12.7. No partnership, No offer

- 1.12.7.1. This RFB initially is not an offer to enter into contractual relations but merely a solicitation of proposals to select a Successful Bidder and to conclude negotiations with such Successful Bidder. Thereafter the Successful Bidder together with the cidb shall enter into a Service Level Agreement.

1.12.8. Independent Submission

- 1.12.8.1. By responding to this RFB each Bidder and its constituent Members certifies that:
- 1.12.8.1.1. its proposal has been submitted independently, without consultation, communication, or agreement for restricting competition, with any other Bidder or to any other competitor or potential competitor.
- 1.12.8.1.2. unless otherwise required by law, the relevant proposal has not been knowingly disclosed by it and will not knowingly be disclosed by it prior to opening, directly or indirectly to any other Bidder, member of another Bidder or to any competitor or potential competitor; and
- 1.12.8.1.3. no attempt has been made or will be made by it to induce any other person or firm to submit a proposal for the purpose of restricting competition
- 1.12.8.1.4. The attention of each Bidder and their constituent Members is also drawn to Section 4(1) (b) (iii) of the Competition Act Number 89 of 1998, which prohibits 'collusive tendering'.

1.12.8.1.5. Any material failure on the part of a Bidder to comply with the Mandatory Response Requirements and Essential Minimum Requirements in this RFB, to the extent that same are not waived by the cidb, may result in a proposal being treated as non-compliant. Non-compliant responses may be rejected without being further evaluated.

1.12.9. Grounds for Disqualification

1.12.9.1. The following events, in addition to any other events contained in this RFB, constitute (without being exhaustive) grounds upon which a Bidder (or if appropriate in the cidb's determination, any Member thereof) may be disqualified at any stage of the Project procurement process:

1.12.9.1.1. an infringement of the confidentiality undertaking by any Bidder, Member or any director, officer, agent, trustee or advisor of the Bidder and/or Member.

1.12.9.1.2. past, present, or future participation by any Bidder, Member or any director, officer, agent, trustee or advisor of the Bidder and/or Member in any activity which may constitute corruption, bribery or impropriety, during the Project procurement process, or any other government procurement process.

1.12.9.1.3. an infringement by any Bidder, Member or any director, officer, agent, trustee or advisor of the Bidder and/or Member of any one or more of the provisions of Contact Policy, Independent Submission, or Corruption or any portion of such section(s).

1.12.9.1.4. Any Bidder and/or their constituent Member(s) that engages or communicates with any of the officials, agents or advisors to the Project on any matter concerning the Project at any time during the Project procurement process, without due authority of the Project Officer, shall be disqualified from further participation in the procurement process.

1.12.9.1.5. Bidders are required to submit correct and true information. Failure to provide correct and true information constitutes a ground for disqualification.

1.12.9.1.6. Any change in composition, control or structure of a Bidder or any one or more of its Members from that set out in their response to the RFB, without the prior written consent for the cidb constitutes a ground for disqualification.

1.12.10. Undertaking by Bidders

1.12.10.1. By signing a submission in response to this RFB, each Bidder signatory warrants that save as disclosed in writing to the cidb, the response to the RFB and the information supplied by it (and its constituent members) remains true and warrants further that, save for any disclosures in writing to the cidb, each Member of the Bidder has:

- 1.12.10.1.1. not passed a resolution nor is the subject of an order by the court for the company's winding-up.
- 1.12.10.1.2. not been convicted of a criminal offence relating to the conduct of its business or profession.
- 1.12.10.1.3. not committed an act of grave misconduct in the course of its business or profession.
- 1.12.10.1.4. fulfilled obligations relating to the payment of taxes under the laws of the Republic of South Africa.
- 1.12.10.1.5. not made any misrepresentation in providing any of the information required in relation to the above; and
- 1.12.10.1.6. not had any of their directors and/or shareholders listed on the Register of Tender Defaulters in terms of the Prevention and Combating of Corrupt Activities Act Number 12 of 2014, as a person prohibited from doing business with the public sector.

1.13. Forms for Contract Administration

1.13.1. General Conditions of Contract

1.13.1.1. Any award made to a Service Provider(s) under this bid is conditional, amongst others, upon:

- 1.13.1.1.1. The Service Provider(s) accepting the terms and conditions contained in the General Conditions of Contract as the minimum terms and conditions upon which the cidb is prepared to enter into a contract with the successful Bidder(s).
- 1.13.1.1.2. The Service Provider(s) submitting the General Conditions of Contract to the cidb together with its bid, duly signed by an authorised representative of the Service Provider.

1.13.2. Service Level Agreement

- 1.13.2.1. Upon award, the cidb and the successful Bidder(s) will conclude a service level agreement regulating the specific terms and conditions applicable to the services being procured by the cidb, more or less in the format of the draft MSA included in this tender pack.
- 1.13.2.2. The cidb reserves the right to vary the proposed terms and conditions of the draft MSA during the course of negotiations with the successful Bidder(s) by amending or adding thereto.
- 1.13.2.3. Bidders are requested to:
 - 1.13.2.3.1. Comment on the terms and conditions set out in the draft MSA and where necessary, make proposals to the terms and conditions.
 - 1.13.2.3.2. Each comment and/or amendment must be explained; and

1.13.2.3.3. All changes and/or amendments to the Services Level Agreement must be in an easily identifiable colour font and tracked for ease of reference.

1.13.2.4. The cidb reserves the right to accept or reject any or all amendments or additions proposed by the successful Bidder(s) if such amendments or additions are unacceptable to the cidb or pose a risk to the organisation.

1.14. Format of submissions

1.14.1.1. Bidders are requested to submit their bids in a clearly structured way. All parts of the proposal are to be clearly headed, pages should be numbered, and a detailed content listing is to be provided. The bids should follow a consistent numbering system (volumes, sections, headings, paragraphs, sub-paragraphs, etc.) that allows for easy cross-referencing, both within the proposal and also in terms of clarification questions, etc.

1.14.1.2. All proposals should be submitted in the format as prescribed (in PDF and MS Word) and according to the following instructions:

1.14.1.2.1. (one) original printed and in an arch lever file

1.14.1.2.2. Only proposals completed in English will be accepted.

1.14.1.2.3. The onus is on the Bidder to submit all relevant information.

1.14.1.2.4. Bidders are requested to avoid unnecessary duplication or repetition of information, and not to submit irrelevant information.

1.15. Identification of proposal document

Bidders should prepare and submit proposals that are clearly and visibly identifiable as a Proposal for Tender Number CID B002/2627 and include the following information on the outside of the Proposal:

Name of the Bidder;
Tender number;
Bid description;
“Original” or “Copy” clearly indicated;

2. SCOPE OF WORK - ANNEXURE "A"

SCOPE OF SERVICES / TERMS OF REFERENCE

1. Client's / employer's objectives

The Construction Industry Development Board (cidb) is a Schedule 3A public entity established in terms of the CIDB Act, 2000 to provide leadership to stakeholders for sustainable growth, reform and improvement of the construction sector and the industry's enhanced role in the country's economy. The purpose is to appoint a service provider to conduct a business conditions survey for cidb registered contractors in Grades 3 to 8 in all classes of works. The survey aims to monitor the industry economic behaviours and trends affecting the small and medium contractors. The results emerging from these trends will be used to advise and support contractor development initiatives and interventions, assisting in building the contracting capacity throughout the country.

2. Description of the service

The cidb is undertaking the Small Medium Enterprise (SME) Business Conditions Survey in support of industry performance, transformation and performance improvement. The Small Medium Enterprise (SME) Survey is a business conditions survey that is conducted in all classes of works for contractors registered in Grades 3 to 8. Additionally, the survey will include designated groups, specifically black, women, and youth-owned contractors.

3. Extent of the services

The service provider will conduct a quarterly business conditions survey among cidb contractors registered in grades 3 to 8 over a period of 3 years. The survey will be done across all classes of works, including designated groups which are black, women, and youth-owned contractors across all nine provinces.

4. Use of reasonable skill and care

- Reasonable Skills
 - o The service provider must have knowledge, experience and expertise in conducting nationwide market research surveys.
- Care
 - o The service provider will be required to sign a non-disclosure agreement with the cidb.

5. Brief

The cidb SME Business Conditions Survey seeks to obtain construction economic perceptions, views, and forecasts of cidb registered contractors in Grades 3 to 8 in all classes of works nationally. The survey will categorise contractors into provinces and include designated groups of black, women, and youth owned contractors. Additionally, the categories will include specific classes of works such as General Building (GB), Civil Engineering (CE), Mechanical Engineering (ME), Electrical Engineering Works – Buildings (EB), Electrical Engineering Works – Infrastructure (EP) and Specialists Works (SW). The results of the contractor perceptions about the economic conditions affecting the industry are to be reflected in indexes or percentages.

The average index value results will determine the business conditions, for example the measure of Business Confidence, Change in Business Conditions, Tendering Competition etc., which is to be converted into a time series of industry trends over the next three (3) years. The results thereof will be compiled and documented in quarterly reports.

These reports are aimed at informing decision makers, strategic role players and all industry stakeholders i.e. clients (public and private), consultants, academia, contractors etc., about the construction industry's economic trends and the impact the country's economic dynamics has on the industry. The service provider must ensure that the final report is quality checked before it is forwarded to the cidb.

The service provider is required to:

a) Understand or be knowledgeable with the cidb register of contractors and the criteria used for grading contractors;

- Develop a data collection strategy that is appropriate for contractors registered in cidb grades 3 to 8 and undertake a comprehensive analysis of data;

b) Is expected to produce results in the survey with regards to the following indicators but not limited to:

- i. Business Confidence
- ii. Change in Business Conditions
- iii. Growth in Construction Activity
- iv. Growth in number of people employed
- v. Growth in profitability of the business
- vi. Tendering competition
- vii. Percentage rating - shortage of skilled labour as a constraint
- viii. Percentage rating - inadequate supply of building materials as a constraint
- ix. Percentage rating - insufficient demand for building works as a constraint
- x. Percentage rating – inadequate access to credit as a constraint
- xi. Any emerging / new indicator

c) State of the global and local economy in relation to the state of the construction industry should be included in the report;

d) Compile a quarterly report and press release that will be published jointly with the cidb;

- e) Produce the survey results in each quarter of the calendar year for three (3) years;
- f) Conduct the survey on contractors that are registered with the cidb in all nine (9) provinces;
- g) Categorise the results of the survey into specific provinces (i.e. Eastern Cape, Gauteng, KwaZulu Natal, Gauteng, Limpopo etc);
- h) Categorise the results of the survey into specific classes of works (i.e. General Building (GB), Civil Engineering (CE), Mechanical Engineering (ME), Electrical Engineering Works – Buildings (EB), Electrical Engineering Works – Infrastructure (EP) and Specialists Works (SW);
- i) Categorise the results of the survey into designated groups of black, women, and youth-owned contractors;
- j) Categorise the results of the survey into specific grades (i.e. Grade 3 to 4, Grade 5&6, Grades 7&8);
- k) The service provider will present the survey results as and when required by the cidb;
- l) Presentation of the state of the industry and economy in general as and when required.

6. Reference data

The service provider may use the following survey reports as a guideline.

- a) The cidb SME Business Conditions Survey obtainable from the website;

7. Applicable national and international standards

It is imperative that the output of the survey should adhere to applicable national and international standards for conducting surveys. The survey must be similar to existing surveys such as the cidb SME Business Conditions Survey, but the survey must be disaggregated to various grades of contractors and to a provincial level.

8. Approvals

Upon presentation and acceptance of the report, the following responsible managers will grant approval:

Project Manager: Ntando Skosana

Contract Manager: Ishmail Cassiem

9. Format of communications

Electronic mail is the preferred form of communication with the cidb; other forms of communication will be through meetings.

10. Key personnel

The service provider must submit a schedule of key personnel.

The service provider must also submit a schedule of contact particulars of key personnel.

This schedule must be enclosed in the tender document.

11. Management meetings

Management meetings are to be conducted as and when necessary, at the cidb head office at 1267 Gordon Hood Road, Centurion, Pretoria. Service providers will be encouraged to call meetings (Virtual or Physical) with cidb when soRequired either at the cidb premises or the service providers premises

12. Forms for contract administration

The contract will be conducted in line with National Treasury's General Conditions of Contract.

13. Electronic payments and payment certificates

Payment of invoices will be made electronically within 30 days from receipt of an approved tax invoice by the cidb.

14. Use of documents by the employer

The request for tender document as well as all the supporting returnable documents will be used by then cidb solely for the purpose of evaluating the bid. The cidb undertakes to treat such documents with strict confidentiality.

The produced documents shall remain the property of the cidb.

The performance security will be discharged by the purchaser and returned to the supplier not later than thirty (30) days following the date of completion of the supplier's performance obligations under the contract, including any warranty obligations, unless otherwise specified. The effective date, all the risks and benefits of ownership of the property, shall pass to the Purchaser.

7.8. Inspections, tests and analyses

7.8.1. All pre-tender testing will be for the account of the bidder.

7.8.2. If it is a Tender condition that goods to be produced or services to be rendered should at any stage be subject to inspections, tests and analyses, the bidder or contractor's premises shall be open, at all reasonable hours, for inspection by a representative of the purchaser or organization acting on behalf of the purchaser.

7.8.3. If there are no inspection requirements indicated in the tender documents and no mention is made in the contract, but during the contract period it is decided that inspections shall be carried out, the purchaser shall itself make the necessary arrangements, including payment arrangements with the testing authority concerned.

7.8.4. If the inspections, tests and analyses referred to in clauses 7.8.2 and 7.8.3 show the goods to be in accordance with the contract requirements, the cost of the inspections, tests and analyses shall be defrayed by the purchaser.

7.8.5. Where the goods or services referred to in clauses 7.8.2 and 7.8.3 do not comply with the contract requirements, irrespective of whether such goods or services are accepted or not, the cost in connection with these inspections, tests or analyses shall be defrayed by the supplier.

7.8.6. Goods and services which are referred to in 7.8.2 and 7.8.3 and which do not comply with the contract requirements may be rejected.

7.8.7. Any contract goods may on or after delivery be inspected, tested or analysed and may be rejected if found not to comply with the requirements of the contract. Such rejected goods shall be held at the cost and risk of the supplier who shall, when called upon, remove them immediately at his own cost and forthwith substitute them with goods, which do comply with the requirements of the contract. Failing such removal the rejected goods shall be returned at the suppliers cost and risk. Should the supplier fail to provide the substitute goods forthwith, the purchaser may, without giving the supplier further opportunity to substitute the rejected goods, purchase such goods as may be necessary at the expense of the supplier.

7.8.8. The provisions of clauses 7.8.4 to 7.8.7 shall not prejudice the right of the purchaser to cancel the contract on account of a breach of the conditions thereof, or to act in terms of Clause 7.22 of GCC.

7.9. Packing

- 7.9.1. The supplier shall provide such packing of the goods as is required to prevent their damage or deterioration during transit to their final destination, as indicated in the contract. The packing shall be sufficient to withstand, without limitation, rough handling during transit and exposure to extreme temperatures, salt and precipitation during transit, and open storage. Packing, case size and weights shall take into consideration, where appropriate, the remoteness of the goods' final destination and the absence of heavy handling facilities at all points in transit.
- 7.9.2. The packing, marking, and documentation within and outside the packages shall comply strictly with such special requirements as shall be expressly provided for in the contract, including additional requirements, if any, and in any subsequent instructions ordered by the purchaser.

7.10. Delivery and Documents

- 7.10.1. Delivery of the goods and arrangements for shipping and clearance obligations shall be made by the supplier in accordance with the terms specified in the contract. Each party shall, within 7 (seven) days of being called upon to do so by the conveyancer, sign all documents required to be signed, and furnish all documents required to be furnished by that party, to enable transfer of the property to be given to the Purchaser.

7.11. Insurance

- 7.11.1. The goods supplied under the contract shall be fully insured in a freely convertible currency against loss or damage incidental to manufacture or acquisition, transportation, storage and delivery in the manner specified of any monies due to any party in terms of the adjustment account shall not constitute part of the purchase price and shall be affected separately from the payment of the purchase price.

- 7.12.1. Should a price other than an all-inclusive delivered price be required, this shall be specified.

7.13. Incidental Services

- 7.13.1. The supplier may be required to provide any or all of the following services, including additional services, if any:
- (a) Performance or supervision of on-site assembly and/or commissioning of the supplied goods;
 - (b) Furnishing of tools required for assembly and/or maintenance of the supplied goods;
 - (c) Furnishing of a detailed operations and maintenance manual for each appropriate unit of the supplied goods;

- (d) Performance or supervision or maintenance and/or repair of the supplied goods, for a period of time agreed by the parties, provided that this service shall not relieve the supplier of any warranty obligations under this contract; and
- (e) Training of the purchaser's personnel, at the supplier's plant and/or on-site, in assembly, start-up, operation, maintenance, and/or repair of the supplied goods.

7.13.2. Prices charged by the supplier for incidental services, if not included in the contract price for the goods, shall be agreed upon in advance by the parties and shall not exceed the prevailing rates charged to other parties by the supplier for similar services.

7.13.3. Seller confirms hereby that it is an Investment Company and not a Trader as contemplated in Section 34 of the Insolvency Act, 1936, as amended ("the Insolvency Act") and the parties hereto agree that notice of this transaction will not be required to be published as contemplated in Section 34 of the Insolvency Act.

7.14. Spare Parts

7.14.1. As specified, the supplier may be required to provide any or all of the following materials, notifications, and information pertaining to spare parts manufactured or distributed by the supplier:

- (a) Such spare parts as the purchaser may elect to purchase from the supplier, provided that this election shall not relieve the supplier of any warranty obligations under the contract; and
- (b) In the event of termination of production of the spare parts:
 - (i) Advance notification to the purchaser of the pending termination, in sufficient time to permit the purchaser to procure needed requirements; and
 - (ii) Following such termination, furnishing at no cost to the purchaser, the blueprints, drawings, and specifications of the spare parts, if requested demand specific performance of this agreement and to take such action as may be necessary in order to implement and fulfil its rights in terms hereof and to recover any damage which it may suffer as a result of the defaulting party's breach of contract;

7.15. Warranty

7.15.1. The supplier warrants that the goods supplied under the contract are new, unused, of the most recent or current models, and that they incorporate all recent improvements in design and materials unless provided otherwise in the contract. The supplier further warrants that all goods supplied under this contract shall have no defect, arising from design, materials, or workmanship (except when the design and/or material is required by the purchaser's specifications) or from any act Or omission of the supplier, that may develop under normal use of the supplied goods in the conditions prevailing in the country of final destination.

7.15.2. This warranty shall remain valid for twelve (12) months after the goods, or any portion thereof as the case may be, have been delivered to and accepted at the final destination indicated in the contract, or for eighteen (18) months after the date of shipment from the port or place of loading in the source country, whichever period concludes earlier, unless specified otherwise.

7.15.3. The purchaser shall promptly notify the supplier in writing of any claims arising under this warranty.

7.15.4. Upon receipt of such notice, the supplier shall, within the period specified and with all reasonable speed, repair or replace the defective goods or parts thereof, without costs to the purchaser.

7.15.5. If the supplier, having been notified, fails to remedy the defect(s) within the period specified, the purchaser may proceed to take such remedial action as may be necessary, at the supplier's risk and expense and without prejudice to any other rights which the purchaser may have against the supplier under the contract

7.16. Payment

7.16.1. The method and conditions of payment to be made to the supplier under this contract shall be specified.

7.16.2. The supplier shall furnish the purchaser with an invoice accompanied by a copy of the delivery note and upon fulfilment of other obligations stipulated in the contract.

7.16.3. Payments shall be made promptly by the purchaser, but in no case later than thirty (30) days after submission of an invoice or claim by the supplier.

7.16.4. Payment will be made in Rand unless otherwise stipulated.

7.17. Prices

7.17.1. Prices charged by the supplier for goods delivered and services performed under the contract shall not vary from the prices quoted by the supplier in his Tender, with the exception of any price adjustments authorized or in the purchaser's request for Tender validity extension, as the case may be.

7.18. Variation Orders

7.18.1. In cases where the estimated value of the envisaged changes in purchase does not vary more than 15% of the total value of the original contract, the contractor may be instructed to deliver the goods or render the services as such. In cases of measurable quantities, the contractor may be approached to reduce the unit price, and such offers may be accepted provided that there is no escalation in price.

7.19. Assignment

7.19.1. The supplier shall not assign, in whole or in part, its obligations to perform under the contract, except with the purchaser's prior written consent.

7.20. Sub- Contracts

7.20.1. The supplier shall notify the purchaser in writing of all subcontracts awarded under these contracts if not already specified in the Tender. Such notification, in the original Tender or later, shall not relieve the supplier from any liability or obligation under the contract

7.21. Delays in Supplier Performance

7.21.1. Delivery of the goods and performance of services shall be made by the supplier in accordance with the time schedule prescribed by the purchaser in the contract.

7.21.2. If at any time during performance of the contract, the supplier or its subcontractor(s) should encounter conditions impeding timely delivery of the goods and performance of services, the supplier shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of the fact of the delay, its likely duration and its cause(s). As soon as practicable after receipt of the supplier's notice, the purchaser shall evaluate the situation and may at his discretion extend the supplier's time for performance, with or without the imposition of penalties, in which case the extension shall be ratified by the parties by amendment of contract.

7.21.3. The right is reserved to procure outside of the contract small quantities or to have minor essential services executed if an emergency arises, the supplier's point of supply is not situated at or near the place where the goods are required, or the supplier's services are not readily available.

7.21.4. Except as provided under GCC Clause 7.25, a delay by the supplier in the performance of its delivery obligations shall render the supplier liable to the imposition of penalties, pursuant to GCC Clause 7.22, unless an extension of time is agreed upon pursuant to GCC Clause 6.22.2 without the application of penalties.

7.21.5. Upon any delay beyond the delivery period in the case of a goods contract, the purchaser shall, without cancelling the contract, be entitled to purchase goods of a similar quality and up to the same quantity in substitution of the goods not supplied in conformity with the contract and to return any goods delivered later at the supplier's expense and risk, or to cancel the contract and buy such goods as may be required to complete the contract and without prejudice to his other rights, be entitled to

7.22. Penalties

7.22.1. Subject to GCC Clause 25, if the supplier fails to deliver any or all of the goods or to perform the services within the period(s) specified in the contract, the purchaser shall, without prejudice to its other remedies under the contract, deduct from the contract price, as a penalty, a sum calculated on the delivered price of the delayed goods or unperformed services using the current prime interest rate calculated for each day of the delay until actual delivery or performance. The purchaser may also consider termination of the contract pursuant to GCC Clause 7.23.

7.23. Termination for default

7.23.1. The purchaser, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, by written notice of default sent to the supplier, may terminate this contract in whole or in part:

- (a) If the supplier fails to deliver any or all of the goods within the period(s) specified in the contract, or within any extension thereof granted by the purchaser pursuant to GCC Clause 7.21.2;
- (b) If the supplier fails to perform any other obligation(s) under the contract; or
- (c) If the supplier, in the judgement of the purchaser, has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for or in executing the contract.

7.23.2. In the event the purchaser terminates the contract in whole or in part, the purchase may procure, upon such terms and in such manner, as it deems appropriate, goods works or services similar to those undelivered, and the supplier shall be liable to the purchaser for any excess costs for such similar goods, works or services. However, the supplier shall continue performance of the contract to the extent not terminated.

7.24. Antidumping and countervailing duties and rights

7.24.1. When, after the date of Tender, provisional payments are required, or anti-dumping or countervailing duties are imposed, or the amount of a provisional payment or antidumping or countervailing right is increased in respect of any dumped or subsidized import, the State is not liable for any amount so required or imposed, or for the amount of any such increase. When, after the said date, such a provisional payment is no longer required or any such anti-dumping or countervailing right is abolished, or where the amount of such provisional payment or any such right is reduced, any such favourable difference shall on demand be paid forthwith by the supplier to the purchaser or the purchaser may deduct such amounts from moneys (if any) which may otherwise be due to the supplier in regard to goods or services which he delivered or rendered, or is to deliver or render in terms of the contract or any other contract or any other amount which may be due to him.

7.25. Force Majeure

- 7.25.1. Notwithstanding the provisions of GCC Clauses 7.22 and 7.23, the supplier shall not be liable for forfeiture of its performance security, damages, or termination for default if and to the extent that his delay in performance or other failure to perform his obligations under the contract is the result of an event of force majeure.
- 7.25.2. If a force majeure situation arises, the supplier shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of such condition and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise directed by the purchaser in writing, the supplier shall continue to perform its obligations under the contract as far as is reasonably practical and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the force majeure event.

7.26. Termination for insolvency

- 7.26.1. The purchaser may at any time terminate the contract by giving written notice to the supplier if the supplier becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent. In this event, termination will be without compensation to the supplier, provided that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy, which has accrued or will accrue thereafter to the purchaser.

7.27. Settlement of Disputes

- 7.27.1. If any dispute or difference of any kind whatsoever arises between the purchaser and the supplier in connection with or arising out of the contract, the parties shall make every effort to resolve amicably such dispute or difference by mutual consultation.
- 7.27.2. If, after thirty (30) days, the parties have failed to resolve their dispute or difference by such mutual consultation, then either the purchaser or the supplier may give notice to the other party of his intention to commence with mediation. No mediation in respect of this matter may be commenced unless such notice is given to the other party.

7.28. Limitation of Liability

- 7.28.1. Should it not be possible to settle a dispute by means of mediation, it may be settled in a South African court of law.
- 7.28.2. Notwithstanding any reference to mediation and/or court proceedings herein,
- (a) The parties shall continue to perform their respective obligations under the contract unless they otherwise agree; and
 - (b) The purchaser shall pay the supplier any monies due the supplier for goods delivered and / or services rendered according to the prescripts of the contract.

7.28.3. Except in cases of criminal negligence or wilful misconduct, and in the case of infringement pursuant to Clause 6;

- (a) The supplier shall not be liable to the purchaser, whether in contract, tort, or otherwise, for any indirect or consequential loss or damage, loss of use, loss of production, or loss of profits or interest costs, provided that this exclusion shall not apply to any obligation of the supplier to pay penalties and/or damages to the purchaser; and
- (b) The aggregate liability of the supplier to the purchaser, whether under the contract, in tort or otherwise, shall not exceed the total contract price, provided that this limitation shall not apply to the cost of repairing or replacing defective equipment.

7.29. Governing language

7.29.1. The contract shall be written in English. All correspondence and other documents pertaining to the contract that is exchanged by the parties shall also be written in English.

7.30. Applicable law

7.30.1. The contract shall be interpreted in accordance with South African laws, unless otherwise specified.

7.31. Notices

7.32. Every written acceptance of a Tender shall be posted to the supplier concerned by registered or certified mail and any other notice to him shall be posted by ordinary mail to the address furnished in his Tender or to the address notified later by him in writing and such posting shall be deemed to be proper service of such notice.

7.33. The time mentioned in the contract documents for performing any act after such aforesaid notice has been given, shall be reckoned from the date of posting of such notice.

7.34. Taxes and duties

7.34.1. A foreign supplier shall be entirely responsible for all taxes, stamp duties, license fees, and other such levies imposed outside the purchaser's country.

7.34.2. A local supplier shall be entirely responsible for all taxes, duties, license fees, etc., incurred until delivery of the contracted goods to the purchaser.

7.34.3. No contract shall be concluded with any bidder whose tax matters are not in order. Prior to the award of a Tender SARS must have certified that the tax matters of the preferred bidder are in order.

7.34.4. No contract shall be concluded with any bidder whose municipal rates and taxes and municipal services charges are in arrears.

7.35. Transfer of contracts

7.35.1. The contractor shall not abandon, transfer, cede assign or sublet a contract or part thereof without the written permission of the purchases.

7.36. Amendment of contracts

7.36.1. No agreement to amend or vary a contract or order or the conditions, stipulations or provisions thereof shall be valid and of any force unless such agreement to amend or vary is entered into in writing and signed by the contracting parties. Any waiver of the requirement that the agreement to amend or vary shall be in writing, shall also be in writing.

7.37. Prohibition of restricted practices

7.37.1. In terms of section 4 (1) (b) (iii) of the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998, as amended, an agreement between, or concerted practice by, firms, or a decision by an association of firms, is prohibited if it is between parties in a horizontal relationship and if a bidder (s) is / are or a contractor(s) was / were involved in collusive bidding.

7.37.2. If a bidder(s) or contractor(s), based on reasonable grounds or evidence obtained by the purchaser, has / have engaged in the restrictive practice referred to above, the purchaser may refer the matter to the Competition Commission for investigation and possible imposition of administrative penalties as contemplated in section 59 of the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998.

7.37.3. If a bidder(s) or contractor(s) has / have been found guilty by the Competition Commission of the restrictive practice referred to above, the purchaser may, in addition and without prejudice to any other remedy provided for, invalidate the bid(s) for such item(s) offered, and / or terminate the contract in whole or part, and / or restrict the bidder(s) or contractor(s) from conducting business with the public sector for a period not exceeding ten (10) years and / or claim damages from the bidder(s) or contractor(s) concerned.
