C3 SCOPE OF WORKS

C3.1 GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

C3.1.1 Scope

This section covers matters that relate to the project as a whole. Definitions, phrases or wording that would otherwise require repetition in other sections of this document are also covered in this section. Matters covered by the General and/or Particular Conditions of Contract are not repeated in this section, except to provide more detailed information.

C3.1.2 Background

In 2013, a concept introduced by the United Nation's programme (UNAIDS) on HIV/AIDS called, 90-90-90 was established, to decrease the global spread of HIV. This means that by 2020, 90% of people who are HIV infected will be diagnosed, 90% of people who are diagnosed will be on antiretroviral treatment and 90% of those who receive antiretrovirals will be virally suppressed.

The strategy is an attempt to get the HIV epidemic under control and is based on the principal of universal testing and treating. However, moving the global response towards this universal test and treat model has posed huge challenges to public health systems in resource-limited settings, including global and local supply chain systems. These challenges are especially acute in Africa, which accounts for over 70% of the persons affected by HIV.

In response to the 90-90-90 strategy, SANRAL has implemented the Employee Wellness Project along all national roads in the Limpopo Province, through the Employers Routine Road Maintenance (RRM) contracts. Some of the RRM contracts are located in remote areas with few healthcare facilities in close proximity, hence SANRAL took the initiative to implement this programme on its network.

The project not only focuses on HIV/AIDS awareness and diseases, but also on the holistic wellbeing of the employees. The Wellness project is targeted at predominantly men who are mobile, migrant and marginalised, in that they don't have access to medical aid or private health care. The Wellness Project brings health services to the workers on site, which increases the number of health screen testing and early detection interventions.

The project is supported by onsite Wellness Coaches who provide on-the-ground educational and emotional support to workers and their family members. The Wellness Coaches create awareness around certain symptoms and prevention of communicable and non-communicable diseases/ illnesses. HIV Counselling and Testing (ACT) and health screening are conducted bi-annually on site, or at a mutually agreed central point.

SANRAL continuously provides platforms for employees to receive support to be productive in their personal and professional lives. SANRAL recognizes that early detection and appropriate interventions to address personal, professional and environmental stressors can prevent or alleviate poor performance, accidents and absenteeism. The Employee Wellness Programme (EWP) seeks to empower employees with life skills in order to cope with life, crisis management and trauma situations.

C3.1.3 Location of the Project
